SUPPLIER CODE OF ETHICS
A MESSAGE TO OUR VALUED SUPPLIERS

Weyerhaeuser values its reputation for conducting business honestly and with integrity. For more than 100 years, we have prided ourselves on doing business the right way.

Weyerhaeuser views its suppliers as critical to its success. The company, therefore, strives to select suppliers who maintain a commitment to strong ethics standards. This code of ethics provides a foundation for Weyerhaeuser and its suppliers to build and maintain relationships based on fairness, trust, respect for the rights of individuals, compliance with the law, and sustainable business practices.
LEGAL COMPLIANCE

Weyerhaeuser is committed to obey the law wherever it conducts business. We expect our suppliers to comply with all applicable laws, including laws relating to employment, human rights, the environment, and health and safety. Weyerhaeuser reserves the right to decline to deal with suppliers who do not comply with the law.

EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

Weyerhaeuser uses fair employment practices and strives to provide a safe and productive work environment for its employees. The company expects its suppliers to also maintain fair employment practices—specifically:

Fair working conditions: Adhere to relevant employment laws, including those related to maximum hours of daily labor, rates of pay, minimum age, privacy, and other fair working conditions. Prohibit the use of child labor.

Freedom of engagement: Prohibit the use of chattel slaves, forced or bonded labor, or coerced prison labor.

Freedom of association: Respect the right of employees to freely organize and bargain collectively.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Weyerhaeuser is committed to keeping safety paramount in everything we do and will do business only with suppliers who demonstrate a commitment to safety. We expect suppliers to:

→ Make continuous efforts to achieve a workplace that is free from work-related injury and illness.
→ Conduct themselves in a manner consistent with all applicable safety standards, including governmental requirements, operations- and facility-specific safety requirements, and contractual requirements.
→ Identify and respond to any public health impacts of their operations and the use of their products and services.
→ Treat injured employees with respect and provide medical treatment for workplace injury and illness.
→ Maintain a workplace free of the effects of alcohol and drug use.

SUSTAINABILITY

Weyerhaeuser strives to manage its businesses in a sustainable and responsible way. We seek to do business with suppliers who share our concerns for and commitment to sustainable business practices. At a minimum, suppliers must meet all applicable environmental rules, regulations and laws in the countries where they do business. In addition, Weyerhaeuser will seek business relationships with suppliers who go beyond legal compliance and consistently look for new and better ways to conserve resources, reduce pollution and waste, and enhance the communities in which they operate.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Suppliers with access to confidential Weyerhaeuser information must not disclose such information to other parties without Weyerhaeuser’s written consent. Such confidential information may include, but is not limited to, the following categories of information:

→ Product pricing
→ Costs
→ Customers
→ Employees
→ Operating systems, policies and practices
→ Designs
→ Production technologies and know-how → Engineering, technical and scientific

PRIVACY

When suppliers handle personal confidential information in the performance of services on our behalf, we require them to ensure that such information is protected against unauthorized disclosure and is appropriately safeguarded. Suppliers must immediately report actual or possible unauthorized disclosures of personal confidential information to Weyerhaeuser IT Security, 253.924.6511, or Weyerhaeuser Ethics and Business Conduct, 800.716.3488.

Note: “Personal confidential information” is private information about employees or other individuals (e.g., Social Security numbers, home addresses and birth dates).
ILLEGAL PAYMENTS

Weyerhaeuser expects its suppliers to do business in an ethical and transparent manner. Suppliers must not offer bribes, kickbacks or improper payments of any kind to government officials or other third parties for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business or gaining an improper advantage. Suppliers are required to comply with the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act as well as local anti-bribery laws in each jurisdiction in which they do business.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING SUPPLIERS

The criteria for selecting suppliers will vary but will generally focus on best value, which may include a variety of factors.

Before responding to any Weyerhaeuser RFIs or RFPs, suppliers should become familiar with and ensure that they are able to comply with Weyerhaeuser’s standard terms of purchase, which are available at http://www.weyerhaeuser.com/standardterms.asp. Weyerhaeuser’s standard terms of purchase will apply to all transactions unless the supplier and Weyerhaeuser have an express written and signed agreement to the contrary. Terms and conditions defining relationships with suppliers are communicated early in the supplier selection process, and agreements to such terms and conditions are reached before work begins.

WEYERHAEUSER’S COMMITMENT TO ITS SUPPLIERS

Weyerhaeuser’s relationships with its suppliers must be characterized by honesty and fairness. We are guided by the following standards of behavior:

- We will not make payments to any employees of suppliers to attain lower prices for Weyerhaeuser.
- We will not reveal a supplier’s pricing, technology or other confidential information without prior written permission.
- We will not make false or misleading remarks to others about suppliers or their products or services.

GIFTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

Whenever a gift or entertainment is offered in the context of a business relationship, there is a risk that it may influence, or appear to influence, a business decision. In order to build and maintain the trust of our stakeholders, Weyerhaeuser discourages giving or accepting gifts or entertainment exceeding nominal value, including loans and guarantees, to or from any of the company’s suppliers. This applies both to employees and to immediate family members.

Note: “Nominal value” denotes an item or event of relatively low value that is unlikely to be perceived as improperly influencing the recipient, such as a logo cap or lunch during business hours.

PROMOTING AN ETHICAL CULTURE

Weyerhaeuser provides regular training to its employees in applying ethical principles to everyday decision making and manages a confidential system for raising concerns and responding to allegations of violations of its code of ethics. We prefer to do business with suppliers who also have a strong commitment to promoting an ethical culture among their employees.

RESOLVING ETHICS ISSUES

Employees of suppliers are encouraged to work through their own company to resolve internal ethics issues. However, suppliers should promptly report violations of this code or any unethical behavior by a Weyerhaeuser employee to a Weyerhaeuser manager or, if that is not feasible, to Weyerhaeuser Ethics and Business Conduct through one of the following means:

- EthicsLine
  1.800.716.3488
- EthicsOnline
  www.WeyerhaeuserEthicsOnline.com

Except as required by law, persons reporting concerns may request that they remain anonymous. Weyerhaeuser Ethics and Business Conduct makes every attempt to protect the confidentiality of information provided to it—unless maintaining confidentiality would create a significant health, safety or legal risk.

EthicsLine and EthicsOnline are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
