

Weyerhaeuser's Cool Springs Environmental Education Center

Reptile & Amphibian Checklist

The following is a list of reptiles and amphibians that have been previously sighted at Cool Springs. If you see any of these during your time spent here, please report your sightings to the Cool Springs staff as this will help with our reptile and amphibian monitoring project.

Frogs and Toads

- Brimley's Chorus Frog
- Bull Frog
- Eastern Narrowmouth Toad
- Eastern Spadefoot Toad
- Gray Tree Frog
- Green Frog
- Green Tree Frog
- Little Grass Frog
- Oak Toad
- Pickerel Frog
- Pine Woods Tree Frog
- Southern Cricket Frog
- Southern Leopard Frog
- Southern Toad
- Spring Peeper
- Squirrel Tree Frog

Lizards

- Broadhead Skink
- Carolina Anole
- Eastern Fence Swift
- Eastern Glass Lizard
- Five-lined Skink
- Ground Skink
- Six-lined Racerunner
- Southeastern Five-lined Skink

Salamanders

- Dwarf Salamander
- Eastern Newt
- Greater Siren
- Many-lined Salamander
- Marbled Salamander
- Mud Salamander
- Slimy Salamander
- Southern Dusky Salamander
- Two-lined Salamander
- Two-toed Amphiuma

Snakes

- Banded Water Snake
- Brown Water Snake
- Black Racer
- Copperhead (venomous)
- Corn Snake
- Cottonmouth (venomous)
- Eastern Honose Snake
- Eastern King Snake
- Eastern Ribbon Snake
- Mud Snake
- Pine Woods Snake
- Rainbow Snake
- Rat Snake
- Redbelly Snake
- Redbelly Water Snake
- Ringneck Snake
- Rough Green Snake
- Scarlet Snake
- Southeastern Crowned Snake
- Timber Rattlesnake (venomous)
- Worm Snake

Turtles

- Common Snapping Turtle
- Eastern Box Turtle
- Eastern Mud Turtle
- Eastern Musk Turtle
- Painted Turtle
- River Cooter
- Spotted Turtle
- Striped Mud Turtle
- Yellowbelly Slider