

Project Learning Tree

WORKSHOP

What is PLT? Project Learning Tree (PLT) is an interdisciplinary environmental education program designed for teachers and other educators working with students in Pre-K-12.

All activities are correlated to the NC Standard Course of Study in the areas of language arts, math, science, and social studies. CEU credit is available upon completion!

WHEN: Monday October 12, 2009

WHERE: Cool Springs Environmental Education Center, New Bern, NC

TIME: 9:30am-4:00pm

COST: FREE!! Pack your own picnic lunch.

What can a PLT workshop do for you?

- Learn to use PLT's interdisciplinary activities to create awareness, appreciation, understanding, and skills to address environmental issues
- Participate in hands-on PLT activities, both indoors and out!
- Expand your knowledge of Trees, Forest Ecology, Water and Wildlife
- Receive a PLT Activity Guide free of charge!

Great for: classroom Teachers, 4-H and scout leaders, home school educators, and those with an interest in the environment!

Space is limited so register today!

- To register or for more information, please call Melissa Myers at 252.514.3533 or e-mail at melissa.myers2@weyerhaeuser.com
- To find out more info. about PLT, check out our website!
<http://www.ces.ncsu.edu/plt/>